Greater Keene Chamber of Commerce Hosts Annual Gala Meeting

Keene, NH (01-18-08)—The Greater Keene Chamber of Commerce held it's Annual Gala & Meeting on January 9, 2008 at the Zorn Dining Commons, Keene State College, attended by nearly 400 member businesses, and local and state government officials.

Governor Lynch was on hand to assist the Chamber in announcing the winners of its two highest awards, The Windsor Brooks Business of the Year and the Greater Keene Chamber Community Service & Citizen of the Year. The Windsor Brooks Business of the Year award was presented to The Monadnock Radio Group and the Community Service & Citizen of the Year was presented to Mary Delisle.

The Greater Keene Chamber of Commerce, located at 48 Central Square in downtown Keene NH is primarily a volunteer-based organization that works to serve the needs of over 400 business memberships through a variety of networking, educational, marketing and community service programs. For general or membership information, contact the Chamber at 603-352-1303 or go to www.keenechamber.com
